Next Sunday's subject will be "One Only." You are invited to worship with us.

About the Neighbours

Somebody once said it takes all kinds of people to make a world. Most of us agree they are all here. You may like all your neighbours and you may not. The point is, it not, WHY not?

Would you remain friendly with the man who told you one thing one day and the opposite the next? Would you prefer a neighbour who always lived up to his promises, to one who promised one thing one day and did something entirely different the next?

Would you lend your closest neighbour your binder or wagon if you had no reason to suppose he would ever return it? Or would you lend him your cold chisel if you knew he would tell all his friends you were the most unreasoning and most greedy person alive?

Do you think for a minute your community would be made more harmonious, a better place in which to live if everybody did the best they could, were as fair in their dealings with each other as you would have your neighbour be with you?

Is not a marvelous feeling to know you can trust your neighbour? Is there any excuse your neighbour can possibly make that would pardon him in your own mind for suddenly disregarding all agreements or promises he ever made to you?

This statement is one of a series written by The Mortgage Lenders Association of the Province of Alberta. It represents hundreds of thousands of small investments by typical Canadians. Its loans to citizens of Alberta amount to some forty-five million dollars.

(The 10th statement in this series will be published in two weeks.)

Davis made a very able chairman. After the program which lasted three hours, refreshments were served, then dancing brought a very enjoyable evening to a close. "The world now has 7,600,000 men under arms; including navies as against 5,000,000 in 1912. (News item in the "Star")."

Oh! Little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie;
Your locks are folded in to sleep, and sleep your little ones.
Behold, there is a star again that clouds the eastern sky,
And seven million living men are picking up their guns.

Hark, the happy cannon roar—
Glory to the Incubator,
Death and fear, and peace decayed,
And a world unrecalled.

Once more the bells of Christendom ring out a proclamation.
Of joy to all the universe, and mercy, and good will;

While brother shoots his brother down, and nation seizes at nation,
And seven million universes are disconcerted at drill.

Hail to Rupert and to Krupps!
Steel is strong and going up.
Let the tidings glad be sent—
'Tis the morn'g of Armament.

God rest you merry gentlemen, whom will these armies are,
Go proudly in your colored shirts, let nothing you dismay.

Oh, little town of Bethlehem, how fades your shining Star?
While seven million fighting men stand up on Christmas Day.

Sing Hosanna, sing Noel,
Sing the gunner and the shell,
Sing the cannon, sing the lamp,
Sing the Concentration Camp.
Sing the season born anew,
Sing of exile for the Jew.
Wreath the world with evergreen,
Praise the cunning submarine.
Sing the barbed and better wire,
Poison gas and liquid fire,
Bullet, bomb and hand grenade,
And the heart of man, afraid.
Christ is come, the light hath risen,
All our foes are safe in prison,
And the Christmaside begets
Seven million bayonets.
Hear the carol once again—
Peace on earth, good will to men.

DALEMEAD

The School kiddies of the district have done themselves proud at their various Christmas concerts held in their respective schools and a great deal of credit is due to them and their teachers. WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Ready to Go

The liver should pour out two gallons of bile into your small intestine daily. If it does not, the bile will stagnate in your stomach. You get constipated. Bile poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, weak and the world looks gray.

There is a little Liver Bile in each bottle of the famous "Little Liver Bile" capsules. You get something that works as the liver. You get something that makes the bile flow. You get something that makes the bile flow freely. They are the only capsules that make the bile flow freely. They are the only capsules that make the bile flow freely. They are the only capsules that make the bile flow freely.

are events long to be remembered.
Jack Kilton the former A. P. Grad agent at Strathmore has taken over C. E. Stewart's place in Dalemead.

Where did Ed Diering get his Christmas dinner and how? We wonder!

Arnold Forster is now spending a few days with his parents in Carleton Place.

Homer Newton was home from Ryeport for Christmas.

Mr and Mrs Allan Cleveland and family, Mr and Mrs E. Rudolph, and Bryant Rudolph are spending Christmas with Mr and Mrs F. W. Rudolph at the coast.

Now that Dalemead has a skating rink instead of a duck pond they will soon give Carleton boys a chance to even up last winter's hockey score.

There is a great deal of concern and head wagging as to where Stan Peterson spent the day on Dec. 13th.

Holford Esther is back in the district again after spending quite a time up at Cochrane.

Believe it or not there was a black bird seen around the district on Xmas Day and it wasn't after any celebration either.

With mixed feelings of joy and sorrow, we tear off the last leaf of the 1936 Calendar and each consigns it with his varied experiences to the basket of memories.

We turn to greet 1937 as it crosses the threshold of our lives and homes, some happily, some gaily, and all with more or less of the spirit of hope for better and brighter development of conditions which should ring in a world of peace and economic freedom for all.

"Hope springs eternal in the human breast,
Man never is, but always to be blest."

The troubled condition of the world seems fraught with such ominous forebodings as to cause even the most sanguine some fear. Yet mighty forces are also at work, more vigorous than ever before to prevent a war entangled world. Greater numbers are striving to spread the Gospel of Peace—to follow the rays of The Star which heralded the birth of The Prince of Peace.

"O Stars! shine on, shine on!
Teach puny souls who cherish hate and spite
To know the joys of peace.
Till fools who prize of wars and arms
Their troubled ways to cease.
Till then to look above, where,
Shining down the mystic years
The Star of Bethlehem appears,
Whose light can make the whole round earth
A haven of joy and peace."

We still believe that if the same peace-loving people of all the world will band together with a firm determined progressive policy and a "will to win", as strong as Mussolini's to rule, that the powers of war can be overruled. It is a worthy aim for which to strive.

CHEADLE

A capacity crowd attended the Christmas concert held in the Hall on Wednesday last. The Rev. V. M. Gilbert acted very efficiently as chairman.

From the first number, The Legend of the Christmas Rose, until the arrival of Santa Claus the audience was held in close attention. The concert was in keeping with the spirit of the season and cleverly interspersed with humor and comedy.

The Filiver Family, was an amusing comedy showing the futility of back seat driving. Walter Wunderland was a musical drill in which the voices of the players blended very sweetly. The Pyramid building was very well performed and brought repeated applause from the audience. Some time acting was the feature of Mrs. Magician's Mistake, and it is indeed regrettable that Mrs. Magician threw away a caution so welcome to all teachers and pupils.

A vocal solo, Alice Blue Gown, was very sweetly rendered by Leila Barber. The play Sailing, cleverly brought out the costumes and dances of various countries. The arrival of Santa Claus brought to an end a most enjoyable evening. The teacher, Miss Skeene and Miss McGregor and the pupils are to be heartily congratulated on the interesting concert put on by them.

The Misses Barber and Theresa Vidal were visitors at the home of Mr and Mrs W. E. Keer for a few days.

Miss Muriel Harwell is spending the holidays at home.

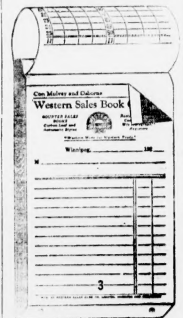

The Cheadle Sports Club will put on a comedy play, "The Black Cat," Watch for later announcements.

May we wish all readers a most happy and Prosperous New Year.
